

A River Runs by It

From: The Washington Post

Date: July 6, 2003

Author: Carol Sottili

More results for:

washington post 2002 shenandoah lodging | Copyright 2003 The Washington Post. This material is published under license from the Washington Post. All inquiries regarding rights should be directed to the Washington Post.

Q Where can I get information on private cottage rentals on the Shenandoah River?

P. Chen

Columbia

A Several companies offer listings of vacation properties on the Shenandoah River. Most of the cabins are in the Luray, Va., area. Choices include:

Cabins.com (865-573-5565), with a half-dozen river properties, including the Riverhouse, a three-bedroom house with deck overlooking the river that rents for $350 a weekend.

Shenandoah Lodging (540-743-5507, www.shenandoahlodging.com), with more than 30 cabins and cottages, including many on the river.

Allstar Lodging (866-780-STAR, www.allstarlodging.com), with listings for more than 25 cabins and bed-and-breakfast inns.

Read for yourself!

<http://www.highbeam.com/doc/1P2-288841.html>